Lieutenant General Edward J. Heinz, USAF
Director, Intelligence Community Staff
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Ed:

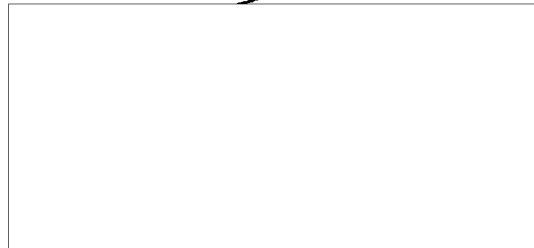

I want to thank you on behalf of STAP for finding time in your schedule to have dinner with us during our meeting earlier this month.

STAP is most effective when it has a good sense of what S&T issues are on the minds of the Community's senior managers. My experience is that informal sessions such as we had with you are the best way to get that understanding.

I also want to underscore the point that STAP considers itself to be a Community resource. We're certainly available if you have a particular problem where you think we might offer some help.

Again, thanks for meeting with us.

Sincerely,

STAT
